Your sofa is modular

This isn't the final shape. It's just where you started.

Every module in this collection — armrests, seats, ottomans, and more — is sold individually. As your space or your family changes, you can add a piece rather than replace the whole sofa.

Every module shown above belongs to the same collection your sofa is from, and connects with the same bracket system — mix, add, or replace any piece, whichever configuration you started with. Match your fabric and color below before you shop, so any piece you add blends in seamlessly.
